The Science & Politics of Global Warming
with Internationally Renowned Climatologist Andrew Weaver

WINNIPEG— Dr. Andrew Weaver will be presenting an intriguing lecture on global warming as part of The University of Winnipeg's Bonnycastle Lecture Series.

Dr. Weaver is one of the world's most respected climatologists. He is a professor and Canada Research Chair in Climate Modelling and Analysis at the University of Victoria. Time magazine honoured him in 2003 as one of the Top Five Canadian Scientists. He is one of the lead authors of the 2007 United Nations Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC) report: Physical Science Basis of Climate Change. This report will direct international policies related to global warming.

The Bonnycastle Lecture series, held annually at The University of Winnipeg, was established in memory of Richard H.G. Bonnycastle, publisher, former Chair of the Winnipeg Metropolitan Council and the University's first Chancellor. Typically, the lecture focuses on an area of special interest to Mr. Bonnycastle—the economic, social, and cultural life of cities.

Located in the heart of downtown, The University of Winnipeg is a compact, diverse, multicultural academic community committed to access and excellence. Home to more than 9,200 full- and part-time students, UWinnipeg has been ranked by our graduates in the Top Ten of all Canadian universities when asked about their "Entire Educational Experience" (Maclean's Graduate Survey, June 2006). The Globe & Mail 2006 Report Card gives The University of Winnipeg an overall 'A' grade in the areas of quality of education, teaching quality, class sizes, faculty-student interaction, and the availability of faculty outside classroom hours.
