Axworthy and Albright Meet With New Secretary General of the United Nations To Urge Action on Darfur

WINNIPEG—University of Winnipeg President Lloyd Axworthy and former US Secretary of State Madeleine Albright are meeting with Ban Ki-Moon, the new United Nations Secretary General, today in New York to present a statement asking for more concerted international action on Darfur. The statement is the result of a recent working session in Washington of 15 former Foreign Affairs Ministers (the Aspen Group) led by Secretary of State Albright. Today's delegation also includes the former Foreign Minister for Spain, Ana Policio.

University of Winnipeg President Lloyd Axworthy will be available for media interviews regarding his meeting with UN Sec.-Gen. Ban Ki-Moon, today from New York by telephone and over the weekend in Winnipeg.

*Located in the heart of downtown, The University of Winnipeg is a compact, diverse, multicultural academic community committed to access and excellence. Home to more than 9,200 full- and part-time students, UWinnipeg has been ranked by our graduates in the Top Ten of all Canadian universities when asked about their "Entire Educational Experience" (Maclean's Graduate Survey, June 2006). The Globe & Mail 2006 Report Card gives The University of Winnipeg an overall 'A' grade in the areas of quality of education, teaching quality, class sizes, faculty-student interaction, and the availability of faculty outside classroom hours.
