Youth and Civic Engagement: Justin Trudeau Confronts Disconnect Among Young Canadians

WINNIPEG—The University of Winnipeg’s Global College presents a public lecture with Justin Trudeau on “Youth and Civic Engagement.” Trudeau has taken on the challenge to educate and empower youth by confronting the widespread disconnect among young Canadians in the political process and awareness of today’s pressing issue. Through his involvement with Katimavik—Canada’s leading national youth volunteer-service program—and public lectures, Trudeau advocates civic engagement in young Canadians. At this upcoming lecture at UWinnipeg, Trudeau will also speak to global citizenship and responsibility.
