UWinnipeg Community Witnesses Democracy: Electoral Observer Missions Report from Congo & Peru

WINNIPEG—University of Winnipeg President Lloyd Axworthy invites the media to attend a panel discussion featuring members of the UWinnipeg community who served as Organization of American States (OAS) election observers in Peru in April and June, and as part of Canadian Mennonite University's Congo election monitoring team in July. A video documenting Peru's "road to democracy," prepared by Peru OAS election monitor Remi Gosselin, will also be presented. This event is co-sponsored by UWinnipeg's Global College and the Institute for Community Peackebuilding at Menno Simons College.

Friday, September 29, 2006
12:30 p.m. – 1:45 p.m.
Eckhardt-Gramatté Hall (3rd Floor, Centennial)
University of Winnipeg, 515 Portage Avenue

Members of the media are welcome to attend.

Located in the heart of downtown, The University of Winnipeg is a compact, diverse, multicultural academic community committed to access and excellence. Home to more than 9,200 full- and part-time students, UWinnipeg has been ranked by our graduates in the Top Ten of all Canadian universities when asked about their "Entire Educational Experience" (Maclean's Graduate Survey, June 2006). The Globe & Mail 2005 Report Card gives The University of Winnipeg an overall 'A' grade in the areas of teaching quality, class sizes, faculty-student interaction, and the availability of faculty outside classroom hours.
