Human Development and Poverty Reduction: Lessons from Success Stories

WINNIPEG—The Global College, a place for Research, Dialogue, Advocacy & Action at The University of Winnipeg, presents a free public lecture with Dr. Joseph Tharamangalam:

TOMORROW - Wednesday, February 23, 2005

1:30 p.m.

University of Winnipeg

515 Portage Avenue

Room 1L06 (first floor, Lockhart Hall, room six)

Dr. Joseph Tharamangalam, chair of the Department of Sociology and Anthropology at Mount St. Vincent University, Halifax, is a former vice-president of the Shastri Indo-Canadian Institute in New Delhi. He is editor of Rethinking the Kerala Model of Development: Making Kerala's Achievements Sustainable? (in press) and numerous papers on economic and human development in south India.

His current focus is on the recent success stories in human development in the developing world focusing in particular on the social and cultural origins of the policies that have led to such human development.

Launched Thursday, December 9, 2004 The University of Winnipeg's Global College is dedicated to the promotion of Global Citizenship through education, research, outreach and community action. Global Citizenship is the relation among members of the international community working together for a common understanding of economic, social, environmental, political, and cultural aspirations. It is about understanding and caring for the needs and sufferings of others.
