UN Reform -The Next Generation With Bill Pace, Human Rights Activist

WINNIPEG—The University of Winnipeg presents this year's Bonnycastle Lecture: UN Reform – The Next Generation with Bill Pace, Executive Director of the World Federalist Movement-Institute for Global Policy. The World Federalist Movement-Institute for Global Policy is a six decade old peace movement dedicated to promoting international democracy, global justice and the rule of the law. In the Bonnycastle Lecture, Pace will discuss the future of the United Nations.

The Bonnycastle Lecture, held annually at The University of Winnipeg, was established in memory of Richard H.G. Bonnycastle, publisher, former Chair of the Winnipeg Metropolitan Council and the University's first Chancellor. Typically, the lecture focuses on an area of special interest to Mr. Bonnycastle—the economic, social, and cultural life of cities.

Raised in Wyoming and educated in Colorado, Pace has worked in an array of civil society sectors including as a human rights activist, teacher, environmentalist, peace-advocate, inner-city campaigner and opponent of unsustainable development. In 1987, he joined Amnesty International as a director of the "Human Rights Now!" campaign concert tour in support of the 40th anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights. Since 1995, Pace has served as the Convenor of the NGO Coalition for an International Criminal Court, an international network comprised of more than 2,000 organizations.

Located in the heart of downtown, The University of Winnipeg is a compact, diverse, multicultural academic community committed to access and excellence. Home to more than 9,200 full- and part-time students, UWinnipeg has been ranked by our graduates in the Top Ten of all Canadian universities when asked about their "Entire Educational Experience" (Maclean's Graduate Survey, June 2006). The Globe & Mail 2006 Report Card gives The University of Winnipeg an overall 'A' grade in the areas of quality of education, teaching quality, class sizes, faculty-student interaction, and the availability of faculty outside classroom hours.
